TI-RATANA CHILDREN BENEFITS FROM MRCB'S JOY OF SPRING CHARITY BAZAAR

Kuala Lumpur Sentral, 1 March 2018 – Malaysian Resources Corporation Berhad (MRCB) through its CSR programme called The Joy of Springs Charity Bazaar has raised RM33,900 for the Ti-Ratana Welfare Society.

Recently, MRCB organised the Joy of Springs Charity Bazaar with the aim of raising some funds through the sale of some must have Chinese New Year goodies together with a chance of fulfilling wishes for the underprivileged children that were hung on a wishing tree.

The wishing tree managed to garner support from many individuals who granted the children's wishes. There were over 70 children's wishes varying from request of new clothes, stationary, new toys, and many others.

The mock cheque handover ceremony took place at the Sentral Suites Show Gallery with the Ti-Ratana welfare society representatives and children from the home. The cheque was presented by Mr Amarjit Chinna, Chief Corporate Officer, MRCB to Chief High Priest of Malaysia of Ti-Ratana Welfare Society, The Most Ven. Datuk K. Sri Dhammaratana (PJN) during the event ceremony at Sentral Suites Gallery.

"We are grateful of the support shown by people towards our humble initiative of raising some funds and fulfilling the desires of the underprivileged children. In future, we will continue to do what we can to help many other homes in need" said Mr Amarjit Chinna, Chief Corporate Officer, MRCB during the event.

Sentral Suites is the latest landmark residential development located at the transportation hub KL Sentral. The project comes together with functional, fun, and interactive zones which is the sky pods, sky gardens, infinity and family pool, BBQ area, sauna, outdoor jacuzzi and a breakfast nook for community sharing. The residential units have certainly been designed to cater to the needs of various lifestyle requirements.
